so you may choose to take care of some arrangements without their involvement, or you can use a different supplier.

The funeral director can give you a full list of what they can supply. They are likely to charge for these additional products and services, ¹ This fee (which is sometimes called the interment fee) is the charge made for digging and closing a new grave, or for reopening and closing an existing grave.

² In England, Wales and Northern Ireland, you will usually need to pay doctors' fees as well. This is the charge for two doctors to sign the Medical Certificates for Cremation.
